Curtis boosts Riyadh office with new corporate partner Stuart Davies

Riyadh, September 26, 2022 –Curtis is pleased to welcome Stuart Davies as a corporate partner to its Riyadh office.

Mr. Davies is an international lawyer with over two decades of international experience in corporate, finance and commercial law matters, having lived in the GCC for the last 14 years.

Mr. Davies brings valuable experience from his previous role as General Counsel for The Red Sea Development Company (TRSDC), the world's most ambitious regenerative tourism project and one of the Public Investment Fund's (PIF) giga projects.

Curtis Chairman George Kahale III said "Stuart's appointment reflects our commitment and focus on Saudi Arabia as a key market for the firm. His corporate and finance background is an ideal complement to the Riyadh team."

Stuart Davies said "Curtis is a forward-looking firm with a strong international client base and huge knowhow in helping countries to attract foreign investment, one of the pillars of Vision 2030."

Partner Jeremy Miocevic, who sits on the firm's EMEA Committee, commented that "Stuart's arrival boosts our capabilities in advising on the Kingdom's giga projects, which are the most demanding and exciting projects in the world."

Curtis opened its office in Riyadh in August 2021, in association with local firm Trafua Legal Consultants. The office provides both Saudi and international legal services to clients based in the Kingdom and Saudi legal services to international clients.

Curtis, Mallet-Prevost, Colt & Mosle LLP is a leading international law firm. Headquartered in New York, Curtis has 19 offices and affiliates in the United States, Latin America, Europe, the Middle East and Asia.
